Note

The marginally noted five office memos contain all the appointments and postings made by me since 1 December 1900.

The first three memos relate to changes made in Inspectors of the 3rd grade ords 50 and below.

In the 4th memo, Mr Bell was reposted to Manjarabad on his return from Deputy duty.

The Deputy Commissioner of Hassan then pressed for his transfer to another district. Mr Sparkes had bitterly complained against Head Quarter Inspector Nagaiah Naidu of Kadur District and taken Burli Krishna Rau who was out patrol Coffee Inspector at Mudigere, as his Head Quarter Inspector and sent Nagaiah Naidu to Mudigere. The latter had also complained of his and applied for transfer to another to another district on the score of ill health and long service in ahead. To meet these requests & difficulties, recasting of ,, as effected in which no new promotion to Rs 70 and above of a an drawing less emoluments, was ade. In the case of Burli rishna Rau it was actually a acrifice of which he had very ight to complain. He is a capable fficial and had done good ork in bringing to conviction ome Konkanis concerned in the miota & Kadur dacoities of 1896-97 nd had been repeatedly recommended for promotion by essrs Carr & Sparkes.

It may also be noted hat the proposal for the employment of Mr Searle, was not discussed before 1 January 1901.

reply to 1st query -

I purchased my discharge to join the Poona Municipal Police, with the object of making a home for my mother, (I was unable to do this as a soldier), in the meantime my mother obtained the appointment of Nurse to H.H the Maharani Regent of Mysore. When the Govt: of India gave orders for the disbanding of the Poona Municipal Police, I was applied for & was transferred to the Bombay City Police, which force I served in from July '98 to September 1900. After going to Bombay I had several severe attacks of fever, in consequence of which, my mother wishing to be with me tendered her resignation to Her Highness. Her Highness enquired the reason of her doing so, & on being informed that it was to come to Bombay to be with me requested my mother to withdraw her resignation & advised her to send for me, promising to give me employment in Mysore, acting on the advice & promise of Her Highness, my mother wrote to me to resign the Bombay Police & to come to Mysore.
